UN PRESTITO DI GUERRA IMMEDIATO ALL'ITALIA

Il Consiglio di Guerra a Washington Riconosce il Bisogno Urgente di Carbone

PEI VIVERI AGLI ALLEATI

Un Violento Attacco Austriaco sul Carso Respiro dalle Forze di Cadorna

WASHINGTON, 27 Aprile.

Il ministro francese Viviani, il generale Joffre e gli altri delegati francesi furono ricevuti ieri dal presidente Wilson alla Casa Bianca. Il presidente rimase estremamente impressionato dalle personalità di Viviani e Joffre e disse loro che il popolo americano apprezzava profondamente il pensiero della Francia di mandare una missione agli Stati Uniti.

Ieri si riunì ancora una volta il consiglio di guerra anglo-americano con la partecipazione dei delegati francesi. Il ministro inglese Balfour era stato nella mattinata di ieri l'altro a un'audienza all'Ambasciata italiana dove aveva avuto un colloquio con l'ambasciatore conte Marchi di Celere. Nel consiglio di ieri i delegati inglesi avanzarono la necessità di atti finanziari immediati da dare all'Italia, cioè alimenti per forniture di carbone. Sembra che il consiglio abbia deciso di fornire questi atti immediatamente. Circa 20 milioni di dollari saranno subito messi a disposizione del governo italiano, ma rimarranno in dollari. Tutti e servivano a pagare carbone formato dalle miniere americane. Nei prossimi giorni il segretario del Tesoro emetterà un prestito di 200,000,000 dollari in dollari e in altre monete all'Italia.

Infine si tenne la conferenza di Washington durante la quale si discutevano i debiti italiani, che forse sono già in viaggio, in tanto a tempo a prendere parte ad alcuni dei consigli di guerra che si terranno qui.

Sembra che gli alleati dell'Entente, dopo aver discusso le questioni della distribuzione dei viveri a tutti i paesi alleati, si parli già di un'azione comune del segretario del Lavoro, Wilson, come capo della distribuzione dei viveri, con il nome di "dittatore mondiale dei viveri". C'è un'idea di un'azione comune ad unificare sempre più gli sforzi di tutti gli alleati dell'Entente.

ROMA, 27 Aprile.—Gli austriaci, evidentemente nella speranza di poter far fuori di efficienza del generale Cadorna, hanno operato un attacco sostenuto alle forze sul Carso, concentrando sulla fo-

Comparison Sells Ludwig Player-Pianos

For once you have heard and played the sweet-toned Ludwig you know it is the only instrument that will satisfy your musical taste.

In spite of the ever-increasing reputation of the Ludwig, in spite of the fact that it constantly is being bettered, there has been no increase in price. You may still buy a Ludwig-made Player-Piano as low as —less than is usually asked for unknown instruments. The Ludwig is the easiest and most natural of all player-pianos to operate, because of its simplicity, and the Ludwig Unit Valve Player Action is so efficient that the expert cannot distinguish between the music of the Ludwig Player-Piano and the most artistic hand playing.

gione di Castagnevizza, sul centro dell'altopiano. L'attacco fallì dappertutto ad eccezione di un brevissimo tratto dove le truppe austriache riuscirono a riprendere una posizione avanzata che un reparto italiano aveva conquistato il giorno innanzi. Ecco il testo del rapporto del generale Cadorna pubblicato ieri l'altro a sera dal Ministero della Guerra:

Dalla valle del Sarca a quella del Brenta l'artiglieria nemica è stata particolarmente attiva. Le nostre batterie hanno attaccato energicamente il nemico nella valle del Brenta ed hanno ostacolato ancora i movimenti di truppe nemiche in quella regione.

Sulla fronte delle Alpi d'Inferno il nostro avvio di ieri l'altro è stato un successo. I ricognitori aerei. Un aeroplano nemico è stato abbattuto all'interno delle nostre linee e gli aviatori, che erano feriti, sono stati fatti prigionieri.

Sull'altopiano del Carso ieri sera, dopo un intenso bombardamento il nemico attaccò in forze le nostre linee nel settore di Castagnevizza, ma fu respinto dappertutto a riprese, soltanto a riprendere il posto avanzato che noi avevamo occupato nella giornata precedente. Sul resto della fronte di Castagnevizza il nemico dovette ripiegare e battere in ritirata.

It concludes with 'Every man, whether sportsman or not, should read this series of Sporting Page sermons. Each week "Billy" discusses a new topic, and every topic has that same punch which is characteristic of the man. Start with the first sermon in Monday's Public Ledger. Then you'll want to read the whole series.' and 'MONDAY'S PUBLIC LEDGER'.
